That this regular recollection of the original resolution at every session of the Assembly is not a mere formality, is made abundantly clear by the facts contained in the following paragraphs .

5) The General Assembly established a direct relationship between the admission of Israel to membership in the United Nations on 11 May 1949, and the implementation inter alia of Resolution 194 (III) adopted five months earlier. Of some sixty members admitted to membership in the United Nations since its establishment, Israel was the only state the admission of which was predicated on the undertaking to implement specific resolutions of the General Assembly.

Rsolution 273 (III) of 11 May 1949 states :

“Noting... the declaration by the State of Israel that it ‘unreservedly accepts the obligations of the United Nations Charter and undertakes to honour
